Beth and Darren are two researchers who are sent to determine the possible value in deserted mines. They have done this a hundred times before, and know they will do it a hundred times again. Or will they? Their innocent trespass into Site 184 is the catalyst to a series of events that is both unexplainable and fascinating. It marks the fierce struggle against time, space and life.

Linda Davis's local fabric shop is a place where women gather to share their creations: quilts commemorating important events in their lives. Wedding quilts, baby quilts, memorial quilts!each is bound tight with dreams, hopes and yearnings. Now, as her only child reads for college, Linda is torn between excitement for Molly and heartache for herself. Who will she be when she is no longer needed in her role as mom? What will become of her days? Of her marriage? Mother and daughter decide to share one last adventure together:a cross-country road trip to move Molly into her dorm. As they wend their way through the heart of the country, Linda stitches together the scraps that make up Molly's young life. And in the quilting of each bit of fabric!the hem of a christening gown, a snippet from a Halloween costume!Linda discovers that the memories of a shared journey can come together in a way that will keep them both warm in the years to come!.
